

East Side Alano Club of Madison, Inc.
Conflict of Interest Policy

Article I. Purpose

- A. The purpose of this Board of Directors' (hereinafter, Board) conflict of interest policy is to protect the East Side Alano Club of Madison, Inc. (hereinafter, ESAC) interests when the Board is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interests of an officer or director of ESAC or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction.
- B. This policy is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable state and federal laws or the bylaws of ESAC governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.
- C. This policy is also intended to identify "independent" directors.

Article II. Definitions

- A. Interested person Any director or principal officer who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.
- B. Financial interest A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:
 - 1. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which ESAC has a transaction or arrangement, or
 - 2. A compensation arrangement with ESAC or with any entity or individual with which ESAC has a transaction or arrangement, or
 - 3. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with ESAC is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. A person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the Board decides that a conflict of interest exists, in accordance with this policy.

- C. Independent Director A director shall be considered "independent" for the purposes of this policy if he or she is "independent" as defined in the instructions for the Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (IRS Form 990) or, until such definition is available, the director:
 - 1. is not, and has not been for a period of at least three years, an employee of ESAC or any entity in which ESAC has a financial interest; and
 - 2. does not directly or indirectly have a significant business relationship with ESAC, which might affect independence in decision-making; and

3. is not employed as an executive of another corporation where any of ESAC's executive officers or employees serve on that corporation's compensation committee; and
4. does not have an immediate family member who is an executive officer or employee of ESAC or who holds a position that has a significant financial relationship with ESAC.

Article III. Procedures

- A. Duty to disclose In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Board.
- B. Recusal of self Any director may recuse himself or herself at any time from involvement in any decision or discussion in which the director believes he or she has or may have a conflict of interest, without going through the process for determining whether a conflict of interest exists.
- C. Determining whether a conflict of interest exists After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the Board or Executive Committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining Board or Executive Committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists
- D. Procedures for addressing the conflict of interest
 1. An interested person may make a presentation at the Board meeting, but after the presentation, they shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
 2. The Chair of the Board shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
 3. After exercising due diligence, the Board shall determine whether ESAC can obtain, with reasonable efforts, a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
 4. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board shall determine, by a majority vote of the disinterested directors, whether the transaction or arrangement is in ESAC's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

5. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy
 - a. If the Board has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
 - b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Article IV. Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the Board shall contain:

- A. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have
 1. a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest,
 2. the nature of the financial interest,
 3. any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and
 4. the Board's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed. \
- B. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the
 1. transaction or arrangement,
 2. content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and
 3. a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V. Annual Statements

- A. Each director shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:
 1. Has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy,
 2. Has read and understands the policy,
 3. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
 4. Understands ESAC is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.
- B. Each voting member of the Board shall annually sign a statement that declares whether such person is an independent director.

- C, If at any time during the year, the information in the annual statement changes materially, the director shall disclose such changes and revise the annual disclosure form.
- D. The Board shall regularly and consistently monitor and enforce compliance with this policy by reviewing annual statements and taking such other actions as are necessary for effective oversight.

Article VII. Periodic Reviews

To ensure ESAC operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include: the following subject:

Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations, if any, ESAC's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement or impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Article VIII. Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Article VII, East Side Alano Club ESAC may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the Board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.
